

You would think that being married to a pastor or minister of the gospel would be so full of joy, love, peace and happiness - all of God's™ splendor wrapped up in a beautifully packaged covenant sure to make a wife shout, Glory! Preachers are powerful. They lead their church families with strength and grace, often emulating Christ himself. What good Christian woman wouldn't be attracted to that? Most women believe these men are Gods themselves, but I offer another perspective. And the Lord said: Because this people draw near with their mouth and honor me with their lips, while their hearts are far from me! What goes on behind closed doors and after 3PM on a Sunday afternoon is usually far from the show at the pulpit, which is used to stir silly women's™ emotions much like, at one time, my own as my husband would minister. Some might be asking why I would put up with this kind of fakery. After all, I'm™ attractive, educated and most definitely gifted. The reason I stayed may surprise you or have you picking up your burdens at the altar, instead of leaving them. I know the pain that I went through trying to do the right thing by being the praying preacher's™ wife. I believed that if I just would continue to give him me sexually, things would change, but I now realize that there is power in the penis. Take a journey with me into my world of pain to purpose, victim to victor, and bondage to freedom!.
